

Power and Hand Tools

Employee Name:

1. Any unsafe working condition or tool should be reported immediately to your supervisor. T / F
2. If a tool is damaged, you should try to repair it yourself before taking it back to the manufacturer. T / F
3. Floors and work areas should be kept clean and dry to prevent accidents. T / F
4. Personal protective equipment is vital to the safety of employees that work with hand and power tools. T / F
5. Belts, gears, shafts, pulleys, or other reciprocating, rotating or moving parts of equipment must be guarded if they are exposed to contact by employees. T / F
6. It is permissible to remove safe guards temporarily when working in a tight area. T / F
7. The greatest hazards posed by hand tools are a result of misuse and improper maintenance. T / F
8. Dull blades are more dangerous than sharp blades. T / F
9. You should never point compressed air guns towards anyone. T / F
10. On jacks, the manufacturer's load limits must be permanently marked in a prominent place and should never be exceeded. T / F